OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject: Constitution of GST Implementation Committee, Standing Committees and Sectoral Groups for Smooth roll-out of GST

1. As decided in the 14th GST Council meeting held on 18-19 May 2017 in Srinagar, Jammu & Kashmir, in order to ensure smooth roll-out of GST, a three-tier structure is being constituted and shall consist of the Office of the Revenue Secretary, a GST Implementation Committee (GIC) and eight (8) Standing Committees. The three-tier structure will facilitate quick administrative decisions required before and after the roll-out; effective coordination between the Centre and the States; coordination amongst the States and flagging important issues to the Revenue Secretary and the GST Council. In addition, there shall be eighteen (18) Sectoral Groups representing various sectors of the economy. The GST Council Secretariat shall coordinate the efforts of the GST Implementation Committee, Standing Committees and Sectoral Groups.

2. Based on the list of members to various Standing Committees and Sectoral Groups circulated during the meeting and the nominations received subsequently, the GIC, Standing Committees and Sectoral Groups are constituted as follows:

- GST Implementation Committee (GIC) – The GIC shall be the decision-making body at the top tier and shall formulate its procedure for working. The GST Council Secretariat shall provide support in terms of coordination, documentation and technical inputs on various issues after collecting the same from the Standing Committees/Sectoral Groups. The GIC shall take decisions to the extent possible and where necessary, place the issues of importance before the Revenue Secretary/Union Finance Minister/GST Council for decision.

The constitution of the GST Implementation Committee is at Annexure ‘A’.
- Standing Committees: Eight (8) Standing Committees are expected to identify steps to be taken in their area of responsibility and to provide a blue-print for step wise action to be undertaken before and after the roll-out of GST. The blueprint prepared by the convenors may be approved by the GIC and thereafter circulated to the Centre and States by the GST Council Secretariat. This would lead to uniformity and clarity regarding actions to be taken by the respective revenue administrations and the expected time-lines for the same. The eight Standing Committees with their suggested area of responsibility are as follows:

i. Law Committee
   - Preparing all the draft Rules
   - Drafting of all notifications
