C. No. GCCO/Tech/Meet/17/2023-Tech O/o CC-CGST-Zone/Meerut/ Dated:

A meeting of State Coordination Committee (SCC) of State of Uttarakhand was held on 22.12.2025 at 05:00 P.M. through Hybrid Mode with the members of State Coordination Committee of Uttarakhand State, constituted vide this Office Order dated 11.09.2023. The meeting was chaired by Shri Sanjay Mangal, Chief Commissioner, Customs & CGST Zone, Meerut.

1.2 The following members of the State Coordination Committee, Uttarakhand were present in the meeting: -

- Shri Shubh Chintan, Principal Commissioner, CGST, Dehradun;
- Shri Neelesh Kumar Gupta, Commissioner, CGST Audit, Dehradun;
- Shri Anil Choudhary, Commissioner, CGST (Appeals), Dehradun;
- Shri Arun Kumar Gupta, Additional Commissioner, CGST Dehradun;
- Shri I. S. Brijwal, Special Commissioner, State GST Dehradun;
- Shri Anil Singh, Additional Commissioner, State GST, Uttarakhand;
- Shri Rakesh Verma, Additional Commissioner, State GST, Uttarakhand;
- Shri Anurag Mishra, Joint Commissioner, State GST, Uttarakhand;
- Shri Vivekanand Maurya, Joint Commissioner, CGST Dehradun;
- Shri Anil Kumar Moria, Deputy Commissioner, Goods & Services Tax Council Secretariat, New Delhi;

- Ms. Shreya Gupta, Deputy Director, Directorate of GST Intelligence, Regional Unit, Dehradun;
- Shri Rajendra Chaudhary, Assistant Commissioner, CGST Dehradun.

2. It was informed that SCC is a forum for coordination between the Centre / State Tax authorities and the Intelligence agencies and in GST regime, the motto is one nation one tax.

3. It was emphasized that better coordination between different agencies is in the heart of this Coordination Committee. Regular/periodic information/data sharing between the Centre and State Tax authorities is essential to avoid duplicity/multiplicity of actions by the tax administrations.

4. The Chairman then commenced the meeting with the introduction of the Officials of Central and State GST, who were present in the meeting.

5. As a part of discussion, it was confirmed by the officers of both Central Tax as well as State Tax that there are regular interaction meetings between them for sharing of information. The Chief Commissioner appreciated the efforts of the officers in this regard and exhorted them to continue this practice of regular interaction and coordination.

5.1 The Chief Commissioner enquired about the preparedness for start of functioning of Dehradun Bench of GST Appellate Tribunal. Shri Arun Kumar Gupta, Additional Commissioner, CGST Dehradun informed that while final approval for hiring of building for GST Appellate Tribunal has been received through Department of Revenue, final approval for hiring of portion of the building for the office of the Authorized Representatives of Central Tax has yet to be received. The State Tax officers informed that approval for hiring of office space meant for Authorized Representatives of State Tax is under process and is likely to be issued shortly.

5.2 Shri Arun Kumar Gupta, Additional Commissioner, CGST Dehradun further clarified that the said building is common building for all 03 office formations i.e. GST Appellate Tribunal, Authorized Representatives of Central Tax as well as State Tax. Hence, SLA for the rented building would be signed after approval for all 03 office formations is granted. After the SLA is signed, a time limit of 45 (+15) days would be granted to them to hand over the building. The building rent would only commence when the building is in position of takeover. As of now, layout is finalized for the floors and work has already been initiated.

5.3 The Chief Commissioner emphasized that work on the floors/portions related to Chambers/Courts of the GST Appellate Tribunal Members should be taken on priority.

6. On being enquired about the details of work undertaken in aforesaid direction, Shri Arun Kumar Gupta, Additional Commissioner, CGST Dehradun apprised that:

- They have allocated 02 floors (3rd & 4th) for members and work has already been initiated on both floors.
- There are total 04 Courtrooms to be built and out of them 02 would be ready on urgent basis soon. Further, there is a separate floor for support staff. They have fixed target of the same for 31st Jan, 2026, however it may be achieved earlier and whole building may be handed over by the said date as owner/ developer has undertaken the work on a war footing.
- Weekly Review is undertaken by them in this regard.
- Due Process for arrangement of Vehicles for conveyance of Members is also being taken up by them. Further, computers for official work of Tribunal would be provided by DoR.

7. On being enquired about the temporary arrangements planned, in case Members are posted/ joined before completion of building work, the Shri Arun Kumar Gupta, Additional Commissioner, CGST Dehradun apprised that:

- Temporary sitting arrangements would also take time and is not feasible at this stage. They have expedited the work undertaken in the designated building and are striving to complete the work by 31st Jan, 2026 for enabling members of Tribunal to start functioning.

- Moreover, if found essential, temporary sitting arrangements can be made in Conference Room of the existing building of CGST Dehradun and there is enough space for support staff in the building. The members of Tribunal can also be accommodated in Guest House.

8. On enquiry from the Chief Commissioner, the Deputy Director, DGGI Regional Unit, Dehradun informed that they are sharing major Incident Reports / Modus Operandi of DGGI cases with the SGST Uttarakhand on regular basis.

9. Finally, all the members of the State Coordination Committee acknowledged the benefits and effectiveness of the mechanism of SCC and holding of meeting of SCC on regular basis. The Chief Commissioner & Chairman thanked all the members for participating in the meeting and requested them to attend the meetings regularly in future also.

This issues with the approval of the Chief Commissioner, Customs & Central GST, Meerut Zone, Meerut.
