On being queried about the reason for filling an application despite the CBIC Circular issued in 2018, clarifying that bus body built on the chassis supplied by customer, is a service attracting 18% GST, the Authorised representative stated that there is doubt in the market. - The Applicant should return the goods after completing work to customer.

4.1 The Central Jurisdictional Authority, namely, the Trichy Commissionerate, had submitted that there were no pending proceedings against the Applicant.

5.0 We have carefully examined the statement of facts, supporting documents filed by the Applicant along with application, submissions/Additional submissions made and thereafter the comments of the Central/State Jurisdictional Authority. The Applicant is engaged in rendering services of constructing bus body over the chassis supplied by the customers according to their requirements. The Applicant is before us seeking ruling on the following questions:

1. Whether the activity of Bus Body Building on the chassis supplied by the customer on job work basis is a supply of service or supply of goods?
2. If it is supply of Service, what is the applicable rate of GST and its SAC code?
3. If it is supply of goods, what is the applicable rate of GST and its HSN?

As the question is to determine the nature of supply, which is within the ambit of the authority under section 97 (2) (g) of the CGST Act, the same is taken up for decision.

6.0 The Applicant has stated that they undertake fabrication of bus body over the chassis owned and supplied by the customer. This is evident on perusal of the copy of purchase invoice of chassis in the name of their customer (M/s Venkateswara Travels document no. MV 15524220000137 dated 05.05.2022) which was submitted by the Applicant. As per the process detailed by the Applicant, once Applicant receives enquiry from the customer, they offer the quotation containing specifications, payment terms, Time Schedule and Validity. If agreed upon, the Applicant undertakes fabrication of bus body over the chassis owned and supplied by the customer.

6.1 The Applicant contends that the activity qualifies as job work and therefore it is a supply of services under Goods and Service Tax Act. The relevant portions of CGST Act, 2017 related to Job work are extracted for reference:

Section 2(68) "job work" means any treatment or process undertaken by a person on goods belonging to another registered person and the expression "job worker" shall be construed accordingly.

6.2 As per Schedule II, Clause (3) of the CGST Act which specifies certain activities to be treated as supply of goods or supply of services, "any treatment or process which is applied to another person's goods is a supply of services".

6.3 Explanation to Section 143 of CGST Act, 2017 provides that;

"For the purpose of job work, input includes intermediate goods arising from any treatment or process carried out on the inputs by the principal or the job worker".

6.4 In the instant case, it is observed that the bus body is fabricated and mounted by the Applicant on the chassis owned and supplied by the customer. After completing the work, it is delivered back to the customer, charging a lump sum amount as Job Work Charges. The ownership of the chassis remains with their customers and will not be transferred to the Applicant at any point of time. The consideration is received only towards fabrication services besides some materials involved in the course of fabrication.

6.5 We find that in the case of M/s. Anamallais Engineering (P) Ltd, decided by AAR Tamil Nadu, vide Order No.27/ARA/2021 Dated 30.07.2021, it was held that the activity of Bus body building undertaken on the chassis supplied by the customers amounts to supply of service as per Schedule II clause 3 of CGST Act 2017. The service rendered was classified under SAC 998881 and the applicable rate will be CGST @ 9% and SGST @ 9% as per entry no.26 of Notification

No.11/2017-Central Tax (Rate) dt.28.06.2017(as amended) and Sl.No.26 of Notification No.II(2)/ CTR/532(d-14)/2017 vide G.O.(Ms)No.72 dated 29.06.2017 (as amended) respectively. The facts and circumstances of the instant case are similar and we find no reason to deviate from the decision taken in the order cited supra.

6.6 Further, Ministry of Finance has issued clarification in Circular No.52/26/2018, dated 09.08.2018, regarding applicability of GST on various goods and services. The relevant portion of the Circular stated supra, is as under:

"12.1 Applicable GST rate for bus body building activity: Representations have been received seeking clarifications on GST rates on the activity of bus body building. The doubts have arisen on account of the fact that while GST applicable on job work services is 18%, the supply of motor vehicles attracts GST @ 28%.

12.2 Buses [motor vehicles for the transport of ten or more persons, including the driver] fall under headings 8702 and attract 28% GST. Further, chassis fitted with engines [8705] and whole bodies (including cabs) for buses [8707] also attract 28% GST. In this context, it is mentioned that the services of bus body fabrication on job work basis attracts 18% GST on such service. Thus, fabrication of buses may involve the following two situations:

a) Bus body builder builds a bus, working on the chassis owned by him and supplies the built-up bus to the customer, and charges the customer for the value of the bus.

b) Bus body builder builds body on chassis provided by the principal for body building, and charges fabrication charges (including certain material that was consumed during the process of job-work).

12.3 In the above context, it is hereby clarified that in case as mentioned at Para 12.2 (a) above, the supply made is that of bus, and accordingly supply would attract GST @28%. In the case as mentioned at Para 12.2(b) above, fabrication of body on chassis provided by the principal (not on account of body builder), the supply would merit classification as service, and 18% GST as applicable will be charged accordingly."

6.7 Hence, the instant case falls in the situation spelt in Para 12.2 (b) of the Circular cited supra, and therefore Bus body building on the chassis supplied by the customer is a service under SAC 998881 – Motor Vehicle and trailer manufacturing services and 18% GST as applicable will be charged accordingly.

6.8 In view of the above discussions, it is evident that the activity undertaken by the Applicant for bus body building on the chassis supplied by the customer is to be classified as job work. As per Schedule II (3) of the CGST Act 2017, the said activity bus body building on the chassis belonging to the customer by the applicant is supply of services.

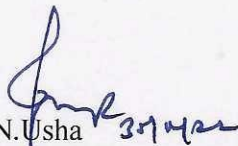

6.9. Having decided the type of supply and the relevant SAC, the rate of supply is to be determined. The rate as per Entry No. 26 of Notification No. 11 / 2017 – Central Tax (Rate) dated 28.06.2017 (as amended) is

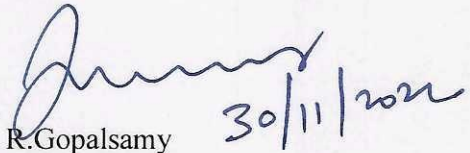

S.No.	Chapter, Section or Heading	Description of Service	Rate (Percent)	Condition
26	9988 (Manufacturing services on physical inputs (goods) owned by others)	(iv) Manufacturing services on physical inputs (goods) owned by others, other than (i), (ia), (ii), (iia) and (iii) above	9

7.0. In view of the above, we rule as under:

RULING

The activity of bus body building undertaken on the chassis supplied by the customers to the Applicant amounts to supply of service as per Schedule II clause 3 of CGST Act 2017. The service rendered is classified under SAC 998881 and the applicable rate will be 18% (CGST @ 9 % and SGST @ 9 %).
